

I would hate to see the Do Not Call Registry dissolved! It has made a HUGE difference in the amount of annoying solicitation calls which I receive at home. When an auto dialer calls your house every three minutes and then hangs up on your answering machine - which results in lots of dial tones on the answering machine at the end of the day - I consider this nothing short of harrassment! Please do what must be done to keep this registry in place - Thank you.